Gentlemen —

Your package of Coins was received Saturday and I return it to day, by Adams Express. Enclosed find check 40.75 for the lots retained viz

No 4 — 1819 cent $1.50

7 — 1817 cent 2.

19. 1803 Half Dollar 12.5

Do. 1796 Dime. 15.

21 1801 — Half Dime 10.

22 1802 do. 4.

26 1794. ½ cent 3. Total $40.75

I do not collect foreign gold and silver except a few English pieces. and I have most of those you sent.

The 96 Dime was only a shade bri[ght] than the one I have with the same break in the die. I thought the 1794 half dollar had too many nicks on it, and it was only a little better impression than mine.

I have an 1817 cent (close date) which shows quite a lump over the 1. It is quite a good specimen of the variety about which the news paper item made the rounds — "an English engraver in the mint engraved a Crown over the head of Liberty out of derision."

I have the Baltimore Lib for 1822 fully equal to the one in the set — and the Shilling only a shade poorer — but I lack the rest. But your price is far more than I would be willing to pay.

Yours &c

Richard T. Wilson
